LEADING NATION BACK TO PROSPERITY

Approximately 35,000 At Work In Auto Industry
In Detroit Area

(International News Service)
DETROIT, Feb. 6.—The automobile industry, true to the predictions of its captains, is leading the nation in the upward march toward renewed prosperity.

This statement, current among business leaders since the first of the year, was borne out by official figures today. The Detroit board of commerce employment index revealed that industrial employment in Detroit—the city where depression did its most devastating work—is now at the highest point in nearly three years.

Record Shown.

The index, taking the figure 100 as representing pre-depression levels of "normalcy" stood at 83.2 on Jan. 31, the board of commerce report said. This is a gain of 22 percent over Jan. 1, and a 55 percent increase over Jan. 31, 1933.

The second comparison, however, is not entirely just, because at this time a year ago, auto production was struggling under the burden of a body-makers' strike which almost paralyzed the factories. In addition, production this year is running on a later schedule, due to a strike of tool and die makers last summer.

The board estimated that approximately 35,000 workers are now employed in Detroit area factories of all industries. The estimate does not include CWA workers.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Work of filing applications for the state bonus is well under way here, and the greater part of the rush is now believed over by local veterans authorities. The American Red Cross, Lawrence County Chapter, and the different veteran posts have handled close to 1,000 applications to date. It has been estimated. Quite a number of veterans residing here are not eligible for the Pennsylvania bonus, having enlisted from other states where they were residents at that time. Many of them received bonuses elsewhere.

No new detours are listed in the western part of the state by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways in the Detour Bulletin just issued, which covers the period ending March 1, 1934. The bulletin is posted in the lobby of the News.

The law that requires trucks on Pennsylvania's highways to carry flares with them for emergency use at night is to be enforced locally, it appears from the action taken in a court of justice of the peace to the west of the city. The fact that one driver had no flares with him, as prescribed by law, was reason enough for the assessment of a fine.

Pa Newc was speaking to a gate-man at one of the downtown parking road crossing today, speaking briefly on the matter of gate crashes. Said the watchman: "Tell them that in icy weather we know cars are hard to stop, and we do our best to warn them early. But when a

Doug Fairbanks Sr. Named In London Divorce Case

(International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 6.—Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., veteran and popular American film actor, was named correspondent in a divorce suit filed today in behalf of Lord Ashley, heir of the Ninth Earl of Shaftesbury, against the former Sylvia Hawkes, British actress, according to a formal announcement by Lord Ashley's solicitors.

Gordon, Dadds, and Co., the solicitors, said Fairbanks and Lady Ashley would have three weeks in which to formally declare whether they intended to defend the action.

Howard F. Dadds, a member of the law firm, stated simply: "A petition for the dissolution of his marriage has been filed by Lord Ashley. Mr. Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., is named as correspondent."

George Gordon, senior partner of the firm, said Lady Ashley and Fairbanks would be served with papers formally notifying them of the action today.

The bill, already approved by the house, has the recommendation of the senate appropriations committee. It will be given the right of way over all other appropriation bills and the huge $570,000,000 "big navy" bill.

Administration leaders expected little or no opposition. Members of the senate appropriations committee, including Republicans, were convinced by Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins that his organization had been doing a fine job of relief work.

It will be a different story when the navy bill is considered later in the week. A small but militant group will oppose the $475,000,000 asked for construction of from 96 to 102 new warships and $95,000,000 desired to equip the treaty strength navy with modern complements of fighting airplanes. The opposition will come from the "big navy" bloc, with Senators King (D) of Utah and Bone (D) of Washington, as its leaders.

An overwhelming sentiment favored senate approval of the navy bill. The unsettled conditions in the Far East have served to strengthen support for an American navy, built up to the limits of the London naval treaty. The bill may be delayed by opposition debate, but its final enactment was assured.

The action of the local court resulted in saving thousands from prison and the logical next step is to free the thousands already in prison for the same offense.

The decision will not bring freedom from prison or jail for any except those sentenced after December 5, and it is believed there are very few cases of this kind.

Attorney General Cummings, however, said he would continue a lenient attitude toward Volstead law violators who have sought parole from prison or jail. For some time, he disclosed, he has been recommending paroles for many "simple" violators of the act.

Rep. Clarence McLeod (D) of Michigan, who has pending in congress a resolution calling upon the president to pardon prohibition law violators, is going to renew his efforts.

"We have an unusual situation," said McLeod. "The supreme court held that all cases where sentences have not been executed, including cases on appeal, are ended as a result or repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Those in prison or jails are not affected."

Unless negotiations are begun for Bremer's release the combined forces of the federal anti-kidnaping drive and state authorities planned to swing into action with the passing tomorrow of the deadline set by Adolph Bremer, aged brewer and father of the banker. Bremer was kidnaped Jan. 17 for a ransom of $200,000.

Police chief Thomas Dahill, after questioning members of a band of eleven armed men captured at Owatonna, Minn., announced he was convinced they had no connection with the Bremer kidnaping although $4,000 cash was found in their possession.

Fire which is believed to have originated from an overheated furnace, caused damage of approximately $6,000 to the home of Judson R. Hodge, funeral director, of 107 East Wallace avenue starting at 3:10 Monday afternoon.

Mr. Hodge discovered the fire and summoned firemen by telephone, who found the blaze spreading through the house on their arrival. A second alarm was sounded from Box 22 by Fire Chief H. Clare Stockman, summoning two additional companies to the scene, and for nearly two hours, firemen battled the blaze before it was finally extinguished.

The fire was one of the hardest the department has been called upon to combat for sometime. The Hodge home, a three story brick structure, with a finished attic, was formerly the home of the late Judge William D. Wallace. It had been built with plenty of space between the partitions in the walls and there were no checks at the floors. As a result, the fire swept from the cellar to the attic in just a few minutes, and when firemen arrived on the scene, smoke had completely filled the home and fire was eating its way between the walls in practically every room in the house.

Firemen prevented the blaze from getting outside the walls except in a very few spots, but they were forced to open the partitions in (Continued on Page Two)

DEATH-BED CHARGE CITES DR. DEAN AT TRIAL

The purported death-bed statement of Dr. John Preston Kennedy, charging his colleague and reputed sweetheart, Dr. Sara Ruth Dean, with serving him a whiskey highball containing poison is part of the state's case in the trial of Dr. Dean on murder charges in the Leflore county courthouse, top, at Greenwood, Miss. Dr. Dean is shown, right, entering the courthouse for a session of the hearing. GREENWOOD, Miss., Feb. 6.—Defense counsel fought desperately today to prevent the jury at the trial of Dr. Sara Ruth Dean from hearing the deathbed statement in which Dr. J. Preston Kennedy is said to have accused his comely medical associate of poisoning him with a "farewell" highball.

Although Judge S. F. Davis ruled yesterday that the testimony is admissible, Dr. Dean's legal battery prepared to cite a United States supreme court ruling to the effect that the statement should be barred because it is "privileged communication."

SECRETARY DERN ASKS FOR PROBE

Of Cabinet

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Foresadowing another sensational investigation which may rival the ocean and air-mail contracts probe, Secretary of War Dorn today announced he had instructed the department of justice to go the limit in probing lobbying activities at the war department.

Dorn said he believed evidence already uncovered in a secret investigation carried out over the past ten days is sufficient to warrant a grand jury probe.

Seeks Investigation.
Dorn said he wanted the investigation to completely clear his administration of the department from all rumors concerning lobbying activities and the securing of contracts, and that he had ordered the department of justice to dig to the bottom.

In a formal statement issued to the press, the secretary of war said: "Several times recently, I have heard of loose talk about the power of certain lobbies in connection with war department activities. Most of the talk seemed to emanate from a particular civilian source."

"As this department lacks authority to make civilian investigations, I asked the attorney general to look into the matter for me. Informa-

And perhaps there is no reason, but the one there is, is clear, this day just marks birthday, and we start another year. It used to be that birthdays called for parties and some fun, but as the years go by it seems that sort of thing is done. It's just as well I reckon for as years slip on their way, a fellow doesn't like it, weather's twenty-two today.

PROBE $15,000 INSURANCE REPORT IN MURDER

New Turn Taken In Indiana Crime

Four Accused In Slaying Are Held Incommunicado In Jail

AUTHORITIES PROBE STORIES BY WIDOW

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 6.—The reported existence of $15,000 in insurance policies to-day occupied detectives investigating the "ride" murder of the Rev. Gaylord Saunders, Methodist Episcopal pastor whose death has resulted in the arrest of two women and two youths.

All four prisoners, including the widow, Mrs. Neoma Saunders, 35, were being held incommunicado at police headquarters.

Authorities said they were not convinced by the asserted statement of Mrs. Saunders that she paid Joseph T. Mathers, 19, $10 to have the pastor killed because she feared he was going insane and had threatened to kill his wife and their two children.

Detective Chief Fred Simon ordered a careful search for insurance policies and records when it was reported that Saunders had carried policies of about $15,000.

Those held besides Mathers and Mrs. Saunders are Masil Roe, 19, and Mrs. Nabel Balke, a nurse.

Dr. Leslie B. Rhamey, Wabash, Ind., physician, informed authorities that Mrs. Saunders had threatened to kill her husband last January 19 "for safety."

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 6.—A supreme court ruling granting amnesty to federal prohibition law violators to-day affected about 250 persons awaiting trial in federal district court on 101 indictments.

Only those awaiting trial on federal indictments were freed by the ruling. Persons arrested in this district for violating the state dry law, the former Snyder-Armstrong act, must wait until Judge George V. Moore renders a decision of their status. Although the act was repealed at the recent special session of the general assembly, about 25 indictments on this charge still exist.

District Attorney Andrew T. Park declined to comment on the Snyder act indictments pending Judge Moore's decision expected late this week. Defense attorneys, however, argue convictions or sentences under this statute which died with prohibition repeal would be unlawful.

One Hydrant Frozen
When B. Truck company from Central department arrived on the scene, they laid a line of hose from the corner of Mercer and Wallace avenue, but found the hydrant frozen. They had to disconnect their line and lay another from the corner of Young street and Lincoln avenue. No. 2 department had laid a line of hose from Wallace and Blaine, however, and with the booster tank line from B. truck fought the blaze until the second big line could be turned out the fire.

Mr. Hodge stated that he had been to the cellar but ten minutes before he discovered the fire and found everything all right. On coming upstairs, he said he sat down to the radio when his attention was attracted by a puff of smoke coming out the hot air register. He went out into the hall and found it full of smoke and immediately summoned men.

The loss on the home is fully covered by insurance, Mr. Hodge stated following the fire. Work of starting repairs is expected to begin as soon as the insurance loss is settled.

"Fathers Night" Proves Success

One Hundred Fifty Enjoy Meeting Of West Side P. T. A. Wednesday

"Fathers Night", in the West Side school building on Wednesday night, at the meeting of the West Side Parents Teachers Association, was a success in every detail, with some 150 persons in attendance.

The entire affair, including the business session, program and the serving of refreshments, was handled by the male members of the organization. The men proved capable hosts.

Chester Sweeney, who acted as chairman, was in charge of the business meeting. Following a brief business session, the meeting was turned over to Charles Colnot, the program chairman.

Two songs rendered by David Reese, accompanied by his wife, the opening number on the program, proved entertaining. Louis Thomas rendered a most pleasing accordion selection. One of the outstanding presentations on the program, was the short musical sketch staged by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davis and son.

The Davis performers scored a hit with their musical act. Another comedy sketch, presented by Griff Thomas and Al Candiotti, entitled, "Tony Got a Job", created a barrel full of laughs.

Frank DeLillo's two popular musical selections, accompanied by the Cople Brothers, added much zest to the evening's entertainment. Mr. DeLillo's two numbers, "Just a Year Ago Tonight", and "Goodnight Little Girl of My Dreams", were enjoyed immensely by the 150 or more men and women present.

The program came to a close with an interesting address, delivered by Nicholas R. Casillo, New Castle Senior high teacher, who spoke on, "Travels in the North".

Refreshments were then served. Ten young men, former students in the West Side school, aided in serving the refreshments. They are: Harry Davis, Jack Lynn, Bert Hillman, William Hilton, Billie Williams, Dalbert Jackson, Earl Sweeney, David Bevan, Donald Douglass, Robert Jenkins.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of: Chester Sweeney, chairman; Charles Colnot, vice chairman; W. J. Baltes, secretary; David Pearson, treasurer; Chauncey Davis, host and Walter Hemphill, assistant host.

Special guests of the evening were: Mrs. Russell Brenner and Mrs. Oliver Hazen, of the Rose Avenue school Parents Teachers Association.

The next meeting of the West Side P. T. A. will take place on Monday evening, March 5, at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. W. J. Baltes, acting as hostess.

Revival Will Close This Week

Much Spiritual Good Is Forthcoming From Union Services Held Each Evening

Last night marked the third Monday evening of the Holiness Union revival services now in progress in the local Primitive church.

By six-thirty seats were at a premium, and after Rev. Beskin, the evangelist conducted a request song service. Rev. Whetsell the regular song leader took charge. He announced during the song service that because of the many requests that were coming in for special numbers, tonight would be devoted partly to fill the many requests that have been made.

Rev. Beskin spoke on "The Battle of Armageddon," and told of the last war and last battle between the forces of evil and those of righteousness. It was an address that was historical, prophetic, and spiritual.

Tonight and tomorrow night will be the last of these special services. Immediately after the meeting tomorrow night Rev. Beskin will leave for Miami, Florida, where he will labor as a Camp Meeting Evangelist.

GEORGE W. MOODY DIES EARLY TODAY

years his name stood for the things that were right and decent and many of the Christian institutions of the city will miss his counsel and guidance.

Born In New York
Mr. Moody was not a native of Lawrence county although he had been a resident here for over fifty years. He was born in Fulton, N. Y., and as a young man was a traveling salesman for wholesale jobbers. Those were the days when the traveling salesman was a pioneer. Transportation was more or less primitive, competition was keen, and the physical handicaps in the way of a salesman were a challenge to an iron constitution and a sturdy heart.

After a wealth of experience on the road as a salesman he came to New Castle with his wife, the late Mary Louise Falley Moody, who preceded him in death just twenty years ago this month. Mr. Moody founded the G. W. Moody Paper Company but later changed it to the G. W. Moody and Son company, when his son William F. Moody became a partner in the business. The company has operated for many years on South Croton avenue.

Mr. Moody was a man of few interests but those few he followed with zeal. He was his business and his church. In the First Methodist Episcopal church of which he was a member he was a tireless worker while his strength permitted and sometime ago the Men's Bible class honored him by naming the class the George W. Moody Bible class. Other Christian interests which he had were the City Rescue Mission, the Scotia Street Mission, the Hillsville Mission and the missionary organizations of the Methodist church.

The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Moody home at 1308 Highland avenue. He is survived by one son, William F. Moody of the same address. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

"Fathers Night" Proves Success

One Hundred Fifty Enjoy Meeting Of West Side P. T. A. Wednesday

"Fathers Night", in the West Side school building on Wednesday night, at the meeting of the West Side Parents Teachers Association, was a success in every detail, with some 150 persons in attendance.

The entire affair, including the business session, program and the serving of refreshments, was handled by the male members of the organization. The men proved capable hosts.

Chester Sweeney, who acted as chairman, was in charge of the business meeting. Following a brief business session, the meeting was turned over to Charles Colnot, the program chairman.

Two songs rendered by David Reese, accompanied by his wife, the opening number on the program, proved entertaining. Louis Thomas rendered a most pleasing accordion selection. One of the outstanding presentations on the program, was the short musical sketch staged by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davis and son.

The Davis performers scored a hit with their musical act. Another comedy sketch, presented by Griff Thomas and Al Candiotti, entitled, "Tony Got a Job", created a barrel full of laughs.

Frank DeLillo's two popular musical selections, accompanied by the Cople Brothers, added much zest to the evening's entertainment. Mr. DeLillo's two numbers, "Just a Year Ago Tonight", and "Goodnight Little Girl of My Dreams", were enjoyed immensely by the 150 or more men and women present.

The program came to a close with an interesting address, delivered by Nicholas R. Casillo, New Castle Senior high teacher, who spoke on, "Travels in the North".

Refreshments were then served. Ten young men, former students in the West Side school, aided in serving the refreshments. They are: Harry Davis, Jack Lynn, Bert Hillman, William Hilton, Billie Williams, Dalbert Jackson, Earl Sweeney, David Bevan, Donald Douglass, Robert Jenkins.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of: Chester Sweeney, chairman; Charles Colnot, vice chairman; W. J. Baltes, secretary; David Pearson, treasurer; Chauncey Davis, host and Walter Hemphill, assistant host.

Special guests of the evening were: Mrs. Russell Brenner and Mrs. Oliver Hazen, of the Rose Avenue school Parents Teachers Association.

The next meeting of the West Side P. T. A. will take place on Monday evening, March 5, at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. W. J. Baltes, acting as hostess.

Revival Will Close This Week

Much Spiritual Good Is Forthcoming From Union Services Held Each Evening

Last night marked the third Monday evening of the Holiness Union revival services now in progress in the local Primitive church.

By six-thirty seats were at a premium, and after Rev. Beskin, the evangelist conducted a request song service. Rev. Whetsell the regular song leader took charge. He announced during the song service that because of the many requests that were coming in for special numbers, tonight would be devoted partly to fill the many requests that have been made.

Rev. Beskin spoke on "The Battle of Armageddon," and told of the last war and last battle between the forces of evil and those of righteousness. It was an address that was historical, prophetic, and spiritual.

Tonight and tomorrow night will be the last of these special services. Immediately after the meeting tomorrow night Rev. Beskin will leave for Miami, Florida, where he will labor as a Camp Meeting Evangelist.

Once Overs

PEACE AT ANY PRICE

Most families have need of a peace maker.

Have you ever thought what a success you might be in this line?

In many of the differences which arise in your home, a few well chosen and well placed words from one not engaged in a dispute or altercation might result in a cessation of hostilities.

In your family circle there may be one member or more who seem particularly prone to rousing the others in controversy.

Perhaps you are the one to fire the argument even though you may have the best intentions and be not the least desirous of adding fuel to the flame.

Why, it is difficult to say.

Perhaps you are abrupt—perhaps too much like the one who angers the other.

Any rate squabbles result and, as none acts as mediator, ill-feeling grows.

Frequent clashes necessarily cause those engaged in them to drift apart.

Love which should exist grows cold or takes on a dispirited endurance.

In extreme cases actual antipathy exists.

There ceases to be a family feeling such as holds families together.

When this state is reached, home and home folk have lost their greatest charm: loyalty and love.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

OH, FUSS AND FURY!

She was a young bride, out shopping for the first time, and when a hen in a crate stationed in front of a shop beckoned she turned in puzzlement to the poultryer.

"Why is the hen making that funny noise?" demanded the city-bred girl.

"She's just laid an egg and is bragging about it," was the response.

And her retort floored the shopkeeper.

"How silly—when eggs are so cheap!"

NO. 8 EXEMPTIONS ALLOWED COUPLES MARRIED DURING TAXABLE YEAR

Taxpayers should note that under the Revenue Act of 1932 the credit for dependents as well as the personal exemption is required to be prorated where a change of status occurs during the taxable year.

A fractional part of a month is to be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it is considered a month.

For example, a single man and a single woman who were married on July 20, 1933, and were living together on the last day of the taxable year, may file a joint return and would be entitled to a personal exemption of $2,038.34, which is seven twelfths of $1,000 for the husband and one half of five twelfths of $1,000 for the wife.

If separate returns are filed, each is entitled to a personal exemption of $1,041.7, which is seven twelfths of $1,000, plus one half of five twelfths of $2,500 for the period during which they were married.

If separate returns are filed, each is entitled to a personal exemption of $1,041.7, which is seven twelfths of $1,000, plus one half of five twelfths of $2,500 for the period during which they were married.

If separate returns are filed, each is entitled to a personal exemption of $1,041.7, which is seven twelfths of $1,000, plus one half of five twelfths of $2,500 for the period during which they were married.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:24. Sun rises tomorrow 7:04.

Louie Rounds, CWA administrator, gets some queer letters. Here is one of them: "Mr. Rounds, please give me some instructions on how to handle a shovel."

To which Mr. Rounds replied: "Don't lean on the handle."

Well, if a pick and shovel is a man's only support, what else is he going to lean on?

Hitler says, "The whole German nation is behind me. And that's something that would worry us, if we were Hitler."

A jest's prosperity lies in the ear of him that hears it, never in the tongue of him that makes it.

Sir Henry Wotton used to say that critics are like brushers of noblemen's clothes.

Stylist declares little men should never wear loud neckties. We feel safe in spreading this now that Christmas has receded into the past.

A professor in the University of Indiana advocates divorce by mutual consent. Well, where there's no mutual consent—

There are some folks who marry to split some one, then there are those who marry for love, and those who marry for money. But in the final analysis, after reviewing the activities of the divorce courts, we are forced to the conclusion that many do not marry for keeps.

There were a lot of us who didn't like to see Prohibition go, but there is some compensation. We don't hear much now about the "beer barons."

Seems sort of funny the way these Federal officers can round up various kidnappers and bandits, and the state and municipal officers don't seem to know where they are.

North Hill woman, all incensed and worried. "I'm going to fire that chauffeur of ours he came near killing me today. Absent minded husband: "Oh, don't be so hard on him wife, give him another chance." Oh, Oh.

When we hear General Goering talking about the growing friendship between Germany and Italy, we can't tell whether he is making goo-goo eyes across the Alps or shaking his fist across the Rhine.

"Indiscriminate paroling of prisoners" says a prosecuting attorney, "does more to break down our penal system than any other single factor."

The lawyer, we think, argues from a wrong premise. The paroling is not "indiscriminate." There are times when it seems so discriminating that it smacks of incriminating.

Who are a little wise the best fools be.

The world's champion rope skipper has just been married, and is now in a position to learn a lot more fancy shifts and side-steps.

Besides, "settling down" on a farm is only half the battle. Any farmer will tell you that the real job is to settle up.

Much of our modern humor, observes a magazine critic, is very satirical. You could drop off the "istic" part of it and it would still be true.

There Are Not Many Folks Now Who Think The World Is Flat But Some Who Think It's Broke.

Sweden has a law that doesn't permit billboards nearer than eighty feet to a road. What a paradise that must be for the motorist who like to glimpse a little of the scenery.

ONE UP ON HIM

It was the practice of a certain doctor to charge $3 for the first visit and $2 for subsequent ones.

A new patient thought he would save $1, so he said when going into the consulting room: "Good morning, doctor, here I am again!"

The doctor looked at him and said: "Oh, yes, you are going on all right, take the same treatment as before."

Only students over 21 will be allowed to drink beer in Harvard dining halls. Those under 21 will have to go to the saloons.

The new president of Andorra is by occupation apparently well fitted for his new job. He is a mule breeder.

Perhaps you have noticed, as we have, that the course in the School of Experience is made up entirely of tests.

THE AWARD OF AVARICE

"Jimps is the tightest man I ever met. In fact he once got a medal for being so tight."

"How come?"

"When he was in the Navy he loaned a guy five bucks. Two days later this fellow fell overboard and Jimps saved him from drowning."

"But that was really bravery."

"Not with Jimps. He only wanted that guy to live long enough to pay that five bucks back."

Glories, like glow-worms, afar off shine bright.

But look'd too near have neither heat nor light.

—John Webster

There is no universal standard, so you can't tell a failure till you know what he was trying to be.

France should be sent a blue eagle with the inscription: "We're Due Our Part."

Artist: "This is my latest picture. Builders at Work. It is very realistic."

Visitor: "But they aren't at work."

Artist: "I know. That's the realism."

"This development," explained our informative host during the leisurely roll through the country-side, "was laid out during the boom period."

"Laid out" was right.

"Did you see in the paper where that fellow beat his wife to death with a golf club?"

"No, how many strokes?"

Say what you will, we owe a lot to England. It was the British that forced on us our one hundred per cent Americanism.

One of the smarter monthlies offers hints on how to drink freely, yet remain sober. There seems no more point to this than indoor rowing.

CHANCE FOR REWARD

Producer: "Did you know you had legs?"

Chorine: "Heaven, have I lost 'em?"

A cavalry regiment is going to have a march from Kentucky to Kansas without any horses. We never did think we'd like to be in the cavalry with horses, because we couldn't want to be bothered dragging along a horse if we had to retreat.

In spite of the fact that John Factor, market speculator, identified the Touhy gang as his captors, a Chicago jury couldn't agree they were guilty of kidnapping. Some juries couldn't agree on anything.

Warden Laves, famous head of Sing Sing prison, said that if crime keeps on increasing, one man out of every 20 will be a jailbird in the next generation. Maybe that many would be there now if the truth were only known about some out running at large.

Mrs. Casey: "Isn't your husband any better yet?"

Mrs. Murphy: "Oh, sure, he is all right, but he can't go back to work just yet for he has some medicine left that he has to use up."

"WAS TAKING EVERY KIND OF DRUG FOR CONSTIPATION"

Then ALL-BRAN Brought Relief

Read this very enthusiastic letter:

"I am 34 years old and as far back in my life I have been constipated. I was so bad that I had one bowel movement every five or six days. I was taking every kind of drug known for constipation.

"Now for the last two months I have been eating a little ALL-BRAN night and morning and I have at least two to three bowel movements each day."—Mr. Frank Piratzky, 40-66 98th St., Corona, Long Island, New York.

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" and vitamin B to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN is also a fine source of iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, this clears out the intestinal wastes.

Isn't this safer than taking harmful patent medicines? Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Severe cases with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

You'll enjoy eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream—sugar or honey or fresh fruits added. Or, to use in cooking.

In the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Dr. S. H. Moore Ends Ministry

Former Pastor Of Central
Presbyterian Church
Retires From Active Duty

WILL RESIDE IN
EUSTIS, FLORIDA

After serving the congregation of the Eustis, Fla. Presbyterian church for the past 14 years, Dr. Samuel H. Moore, former pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of this city, ended his active ministry January 7 when he administered Holy Communion to the members of his congregation.

Concerning his retirement the following item is taken from the Eustis Lake Region, Eustis, Fla.

"Nearly fourteen years ago Dr. Moore was installed as pastor of this church. For that length of time he has been the faithful guide and friend of that congregation. He has spoken to them in season and out of season, the Word, the Truth, and the Life. He has prayed for those in trouble. He has counseled those who strayed. He has baptized the children, joined their hands in marriage, as they grew to manhood and womanhood. He has welcomed them into the church and has escorted them as far as man could go on the last long journey.

"Now that is over. Dr. Moore has retired. There has never been a clergyman of any denomination who has filled so large a place in the affection and the regard of the people. The religious looked up to him. The unchurched knew him to be their friend.

"In a large sense, this has been true for a longer time than most people realized. For more than fifty-four years he has exercised his ministry in many parts of this country. In every case, during all these years, his record has been the same. A great preacher, a great speaker, a warm friend, a man's man, Christ's man.

"This is not a farewell. In this, the people of Eustis are to be congratulated. While he retires from the active ministry as pastor of a church he will not retire for many years from being an active supporter of all good causes. He will continue to be a citizen of Eustis. For a long time to come, he will be the First Citizen here.

Dr. Moore left New Castle around 25 years ago but is vividly remembered by many of the older members of the Central Presbyterian church, who have kindly thoughts of him on this occasion.

AROUND CITY HALL

North Mercer street, a straight "shot" from East Washington street to the northern city line should be put in condition. It absorbs plenty of traffic which formerly flowed in Highland Avenue. North from Sheridan Avenue it is a series of bumps. Half of the street is in the city and the other half in Neshannock township. Should the council of the city and township supervisors get together no doubt the street could be put in good condition through CWA channels.

A. Reid English, scaler of weights and inspector of measures had a good month as apparently everybody who sold coal, potatoes, in fact anything which had to be weighed or measured was on their good behavior. He made about 300 tests. He did not find it necessary to condemn one scale or measure. Only six adjustments were necessary.

Judging from what one coal dealer here said a few nights ago the new law which calls for a five dollar license isn't very popular with dealers. Here is what he says about it: "I pay $5.00 to weigh coal. If another man at my place weighs coal I have to pay $5.00 for him. If he quits my concern and goes to another firm he must pay another $5.00. Not long ago Mr. English, who happens to be the city's 'weighmaster-in-chief' advised coal dealers to take out licenses in order to avoid fines. A state act made this levy possible.

So far as Solicitor R. M. White knows no township or borough has entered into a contract with the city whereby the city will furnish fire fighting apparatus and firemen in townships and boroughs. It is now possible, it is reported, due to a new state law for the service. The city of New Castle has always been somewhat squeamish about sending fire trucks and firemen outside the city limits, for fear some of the firemen will be injured or killed or the apparatus damaged.

Several of the persons who now hold city positions were on the anxious seat yesterday because the first Monday in February is the date when offices, for which terms are to expire in February, generally are filled by reappointment or new appointment. However, this must have been forgotten by councilmen as nothing about reappointments or appointments was mentioned.

Croton Avenue hill fence isn't a very nice looking advertisement for the city. In time the fence, which now consists in some places of wood and in others of cable will be replaced by a stone wall. Imagine an automobile skidding over the sidewalk and being held from plunging 50 or 60 feet by the present "barrier." The stone wall will be an actuality some of these days but the fact remains that for years every time the fence was mentioned the "private property" idea would be advanced. The city now owns the land.

Flashes From Our Night Schools

Monday night classes started out with renewed vigor on a new week's activity in the North street and Lincoln and Garfield night schools, last evening.

There were more than thirty students present in the bookkeeping class which is handicapped by a lack of textbooks, some of which are in the hands of students who are not keeping up with the class. There were also many present in the finance, English, hygiene, sociology, and advanced shorthand classes. These run from 4:30 to 5:30 every day of the week and are open to all adults.

John Stanley, busy with his stagecraft classes, took time out to address the Phalanx contingent, interested in the art of public speaking. His lecture dealt with the psychology of poise in public speaking. Wednesday evening from 6 to 7:30, Mr. O'Neill and Mr. Stanley will again meet the Phalanx public speaking group in the North street building.

Dr. C. C. Green has granted the night school dramatics group of the North Street building, permission to use the woodwork department of the George Washington Junior High and the Art Department of Ben Franklin school. Mr. Stanley will have charge of the classes which will make all the sets for the dramatic productions soon to be given in the North Street building. Mr. McCurdy, in charge of the woodwork shop at George Washington, and Mr. Garway, of North street building, will assist Mr. Stanley in this stagecraft work.

Mrs. Alice Guy's classes in sewing and the altering of garments got under way last evening, when a class met in the home of Miss Victoria Micco, of Beatty avenue, in Croton district. There were twelve young ladies present. Other sewing groups are meeting as follows: Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 1:30 to 4 o'clock in the Dithomas home, 123 Center street; 1:30 to 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. G. Nardis, 1301 Croton avenue; 6 to 10 o'clock Wednesday in the home of S. Rubels, 409 Hawthorne street; 6 to 10 o'clock Thursday in the home of Mrs. G. Rubels, 1115 Dewey avenue; 1 to 4 o'clock Friday in the home of Mrs. E. McElroy, 1606 Huron avenue.

Dr. C. C. Green, director of the Emergency Educational Relief Program in Lawrence county, states that the time has come when domesticity in its various phases will once again take a leading part in stabilizing the civic, moral, and spiritual life of an ailing American social system. He voiced the opinion that the external verities of life, honesty, sobriety, and the love of home would help to bring about a better balanced social and economic civilization.

The sewing project just instituted, fits in splendidly with the E. E. R. program, Dr. Green states.

Love Triangle In Murder Case

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 6.—Revelation of a love triangle in which Roy A. Mull, murder charge defendant, was the vertex, was put in the record in criminal court here today as Prosecutor Chauncey Pruger opened his trial against Mull and his wife, Grace, a second corner of the triangle.

Both are charged with slaying Margaret Schwickrath, Pittsburgh's "mystery girl", the third and final point of the tri-cornered affair. Their son, Elmer, 19, also is on trial in connection with the girl's death. Pruger, in his opening argument, told the jury how Mrs. Mull pretended that she was not disturbed by the relations between her husband and the girl but that she complained to her husband because she was jealous of his attentions to the girl.

Margaret's body was found in a culvert on the Allegheny River Boulevard and became that of the "mystery girl" as thousands passed by the white slabs in county morgue in an effort to identify her.

Union Audience Sees Magicians Do Many Things

Nice Sum Realized At Union High For Athletic Association, 600 Present Monday

About six hundred were present yesterday afternoon at the Union High auditorium and about that same number were equally mystified by the magic as handed out by Don Hofmeister and Don Sherwood. The magicians were performing for the benefit of the Union High School Athletic fund, and quite a nice sum was realized.

Hofmeister, a member of the Union faculty is one of the cleverest magicians in the city and in fact Western Pennsylvania. The two men pulled many strange and interesting feats, the two best being the "Floating Lady", with Sara Loudon as the subject, and taking a woman out of a box, sort of a "Alice in Wonderland" act. A copy of the New Castle News was torn up in a thousand pieces and then in the flash of an eye was back together again.

The entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present.

Fifty-two instruments of all kinds were recorded at the register and recorder's office last week compared with 250 during the previous week. Of the record the previous week. Of the number recorded last week, 16 were deeds, 17 oil leases and 13 mortgages.

Three home loan mortgages recorded totaled $7,123.24; three to individuals, $3,252; five to building and loans, $14,400, and two to the land bank commissioner, $1,300. All mortgages totaled $26,075.24, compared with a total of $31,437.17 the previous week.

Testimony which was taken in the recent case of William Foley of Ellwood City has been written out by one of the court stenographers. It made 291 typewritten pages. Foley, however, did not take an appeal and was sentenced to the penitentiary on an assault charge.

County Sealer of Weights and Measures L. W. Houk has submitted his report for the month of January. It shows 30 wagon scales inspected; two were found incorrect and five were adjusted. Eighteen platform scales inspected, all correct. Five spring balances were found to be correct. Of 46 computing scales inspected eight needed adjustment. One beam scale out of six needed adjustment. All of 168 averdupois weights were found correct. Out of 680 packages inspected nine were found to be incorrect.

Courthouse officials were much interested this morning in watching the lone squirrel which makes its home on a maple tree in front of the courthouse, carry an ear of corn up to its nest. The ear of corn was as long as the squirrel, not counting its tail. The squirrel caught the ear in its teeth, holding it about the center, and ran up to its nest about 30 feet above the ground, apparently with little effort.

The surprising feature was that the squirrel could carry such a heavy load up a tree. So far this year none of the other squirrels that frequented the courthouse lawn last year have put in an appearance, and it is feared that they have been killed.

Letters of administration in the estate of the late Pearl E. Chambers of this city have been issued by the register and recorder to Thomas E. Chambers. A death certificate of Mary Schechter, who died in Chicago, has been filed at the register and recorder's office. The decedent was interested in property here.

County commissioners have received a letter from PWA Administrator Harold L. Ickes asking for a confirmation of data which was hurriedly furnished at the time application was made for public funds for the building of a courthouse. The request is for the assessed valuation of the county, bond issues outstanding, interest rates and other matters which will give the administrator a fair picture of the financial affairs of the county. The information asked relates to the obligations of the county, and does not include obligations of cities, boroughs and townships.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard sold a number of properties under the hammer at the courthouse yesterday. There were few bidders and nearly all of the properties were knocked down to the plaintiffs in the case. There has been some let-up of late in the number of executions issued on real estate CWA work is said to have been a factor in helping pay mortgage interest, and an increasing number of people are being able to get their mortgages refinanced through the home loan owners' corporation. There is also a feeling among real estate owners and mortgage holders that real estate is about to show a pick-up. Nearly all of the good houses for rent in the city are now occupied. There are still some vacancies among old houses, but they are tiling up. There is also a noticeable increase in rents, especially on the better class of houses. It is believed that from now on, foreclosures will diminish. There are few people inclined to foreclose a mortgage now unless the case is absolutely hopeless.

Arguments were made at court yesterday in the case of the State Auto Sales company against J. W. Higgins. The controversy is over the sale of an automobile.

You needn't worry. A revolutionary leader soon collects so much money he feels opposed to all change.

Read the "Ads" but don't ignore medical opinion

if you want to——relieve constipation gently and safely
—take the exact dose suited to your need
—avoid danger of bowel strain

A doctor will tell you that the careless use of harsh laxatives will often do more harm than good.

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form.

Can Constipation be safely relieved?

"Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say thousands who have followed this sensible medical advice: 1. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Take the dose that you find suited to your system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving regularly without assistance.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription preparation containing senna, a natural vegetable laxative which relieves constipation gently and safely. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is no "convenience" in any cathartic that's taken so frequently, you must carry it wherever you go!

What is the "Right" Laxative?

In buying any laxative, read the label! Not the claims, but the contents. If it contains doubtful

Why Doctors give a liquid laxative

The habitual use of harsh salts, or powerful drugs in the highly concentrated form of pills or tablets is risky. The properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without discomfort or injury. You need not take a "double dose" a day or two later.

The public can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store.

HOLD ALIQUIPPA SLAYER IN BEAVER JAIL

Family Prepares To Bury Mother

Police Are Unable To Learn Cause Of Shooting Outbreak

WOUNDED DAUGHTERS REMAIN IN HOSPITAL

(International News Service) ALIQUIPPA, Pa., Feb. 6.—A grieving family made arrangements today to bury their mother whose life was snuffed out by bullets from a revolver fired by her husband who also seriously wounded his two daughters in a reckless demonstration of shooting at his home here yesterday.

Captured by police who were forced to resort to tear gas bombs, Joseph Diagonino, 54, was placed in Beaver county jail to await formal murder charges. Two daughters, Anna, 22, and Elizabeth, 16, suffering from bullet wounds in their backs fought for their lives in Rochester General hospital. Their condition was reported "fair" but not out of danger.

Five Escape
Five other members of the family who escaped as their father discharged bullets in a crazed manner prepared to bury their 47-year-old mother who had been ill for some time. Two older sons were not home when the shooting occurred.

Because of the prisoner's highly nervous condition, police were unable to learn much about the tragedy from him. They said he had been under a physician's care for some time and also had been out of work.

She Feared She Had a Serious Disorder

What She Really Had Was "Acid Stomach" Easily Corrected

Authorities now tell us that one of the frequent penalties of middle-age is acid stomach. A rebellion of the stomach, after years of faulty diet.

If you have Acid Stomach, you can easily trace it. Headaches, stomach pains after eating, "gas," "upsets," nausea are the usual indications.

To get rid of it, all you need do is this:

Take—2 Teaspoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in a glass of water every morning when you get up. Take another teaspoonful thirty minutes after eating. And another before you go to bed. Or—you can take Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets, substituting one tablet for each teaspoonful of the liquid and get the same result.

Try It—You Will Be Amazed

Try this and, chances are, it will make a great difference in your life. For this small dosage of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia acts to neutralize the stomach acids that cause your distress.

After-meal pains and discomfort go. You feel freedom from dull headaches. That "afternoon fog" you think is depletion or "nerves" disappears. You feel like another person.

When you buy, be sure to get the REAL article—Genuine PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia, the kind doctors endorse. Always ask for it by the name PHILLIPS—for all "milk of magnesia" is not alike.

Rev. S. L. Cobb Guest Minister Sunday; Castleton Quartet Returns Home

By WILLIAM A. JOHNS (Brython)
A glorious talk on baptism was given last Sunday evening at the Emmanuel Baptist church by Rev. S. L. Cobb, visiting pastor from the Harmony Baptist church. Tom Hopkins, former choir leader of the church, took care of the singing. Rev. Cobb baptised six members of the Sunday school.

The people of New Castle are in great sympathy with William Grey, of Aliquippa, who is a patient in the New Castle hospital. He used to make his home in New Castle, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Grey, of Mill street. His late father was a well known poet.

Next Saturday evening at 7:30 the members of the Star of Wales Lodge No. 60 True Iovites of America will meet at the Emmanuel Baptist church when preparations will be made for the celebration of St. David's Day, March 6, at the First Congregational church. The two lodges, the Martha and Star of Wales, will combine for the celebration. The following committee, Thomas D. Thomas, Daniel Hughes and Henry T. Jones, will be present at the meeting and report the progress of the plans.

The Castleton quartet of New Castle, composed of Arthur Thomas, George Anthony, Harry Evans and Richard E. Johns, and the pianist, Mr. Cypher, have just returned from Washington, Pa., where they gave a No. 1 concert to the Masonic lodge of that city. They received a warm invitation to return in the near future.

Mrs. Mary Stritmatter, Park avenue, is located at the present time at the Charleston hotel, Euclid avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, and is visiting one of the hospitals of that city two or three times a week for treatment.

PRINCIPALS IN PASTOR'S MURDER

These photos show the persons involved in the slaying at Wabash, Ind., of the Rev. Gaylor V. Saunders (2) in a plot allegedly instigated by the minister's wife, Mrs. Naomi Saunders (1) because he "had been acting strangely." Theodore Mather (3), 19-year-old resident of Coalmont, Ind., is alleged to have confessed that Mrs. Saunders paid him $10 to kill the pastor, and that his companion, Mabel Roe (4), drove the automobile in which Saunders was carried to a spot in the country near Wabash and slain. Mrs. Mabel Baile (4), former nurse of Mrs. Saunders, who allegedly shared in the plot, has been arrested in connection with the murder together with the wife, Mather and Roe.

SHARON MOTHER SENT TO MUNCY

Woman Who Strangled Baby Is Sentenced By Mercer County Court

(International News Service) MERCER, Pa., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Mary Zitznar, of Sharon, who a month ago startled police circles when she walked into Sharon headquarters to tell officers how she had strangled her two-year-old son to death, today was ordered confined to the Muncy hospital for women by Judge J. A. McLaughry.

The woman was highly nervous when she appeared in court to repeat her confession that she killed her son after five doctors told her he could never recover. She told the court her conscience bothered her and she couldn't stand it any longer.

County authorities said the woman would probably be paroled when her mental and physical condition improved.

Many War Veterans Record Discharges

Local Veterans, Getting Out Papers For Bonus, Having Them Copied

Many World War veterans who have not had their army discharge papers recorded, are now having this done during the present bonus rush, it was revealed today.

Secretary Orville Potter of the Lawrence County Chapter, delivered fifty army discharges to Recorder William R. Hanna to have them recorded in the Recorder's office. Many others are having this done as individuals, and the clerks in Mr. Hanna's office are going to be busy for some little time completing his task.

Veterans who have neglected to have their discharge papers recorded should take advantage of the opportunity to have this done, as they can later receive a certified copy which is a legal document and accepted in lieu of a discharge paper if the regular army discharge becomes lost.

Many applications are being made to the Adjutant General's office for certificates in lieu of lost discharge by war veterans who have been unable to find their discharge papers or who have not had them recorded. This is a lengthy process and will delay many veterans in applying for the state bonus.

TO CLAMP DOWN ON DRUNKEN DRIVERS

(International News Service) BUTLER, Pa., Feb. 6.—Judge John H. Wilson, Democrat, who became judge of the Common Pleas Court of Butler county, January 1, has served notice that "barren days" will no longer be observed for drivers found guilty of operating motor vehicles while under the influence of intoxicants.

Several drivers have been sentenced to pay fines of $100 each and surrender licenses for a year, but Judge Wilson says he has decided to impose fines of $200, with commitment to jail if the offender fails to pay.

Remove the outside leaves from the head of lettuce, wash thoroughly in cold water and drain. Wrap in a damp cloth and put near the ice or in a covered dish in the mechanical refrigerator. It will keep fresh and crisp.

DANDRUFF Ends Overnight!

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get some plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring, using enough to moisten the scalp and rubbing it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It won't cost you more than thirty-five cents (35c). This simple remedy never fails.

Water Will Flow Over Upper Dam At Pymatuning

Linesville, Pa., Feb. 6.—When the present snow and ice melts, water will flow over the spillway of the "upper third" of the Pymatuning Reservoir.

This was evident yesterday when it was noted that the ice-covered lake which has formed east of the Linesville-Epsvill road had reached a level of about four inches below the top of the auxiliary dam which is located at the side of the highway.

The territory now occupied by this part of the Pymatuning reservoir is more than twice as large as Conneaut Lake, and it has been rising at a time when precipitation has been in the form of more snow than rain. It is now certain that with the first day will melt the snow and ice, water will go over the concrete spillway at a rapid rate, flowing into the main basin of the Pymatuning reservoir.

Large Number At Coin Meeting

Local Coin Club Will Adopt Constitution And By Laws At Next Meeting

Renewed interest is being shown by members of the New Castle Coin Club, following the application for a charter from the American Numismatic Association, and the attendance at last evening's meeting in the Pennsylvania Power Company building was exceptionally large.

Kenneth Woods addressed the members on the history of coinage, which dates back into the eight century B. C. he stated. He told about early American coinage and listed many of the valuable early coins.

A By Laws committee, consisting of Kenneth Woods and E. B. Hawkins was named to report at the next meeting on February 19.

Ben B. Zeisel, C. E. Allen and Ralph F. Davis were named on the committee to have charge of the entertainment at the next meeting.

Massanutten To Have Big Team

Virginia Quintet Will Probably Give New Castle Hi Testing Wednesday

PRELIM GAME IS ARRANGED

Massanutten Academy basketball team will have it all over the New Castle High school basketball team in height and reach when the two teams clash at George Washington Junior High floor Wednesday evening.

The Virginia team will average better than 6 foot per man, with Hale the big center going about 6 feet 3 inches. Either Miles or Kelley will have quite an assignment trying to stop the former Braddock High star. Hale played against New Castle at the Pitt Stadium for a few years back. He is a fine pivot man, and an accurate shot.

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh will probably use the combination that finished the game against the South Hills High team, which was composed of Hitchens and Reiber at the forwards, Kelly at center and Komine and Ostrosky at the guards. Although he may send Miles back to center and shift Kelly to a forward against the Virginia giants, in order to stop the visitors.

Colorful Team
This Massanutten team is one of the most colorful ever scheduled for New Castle and Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner is looking for a fine turnout of fans. The admission prices will remain the same at 15 cents for students and 25 and 35 for adults.

In the preliminary game the New Castle High Reserves will play the Gersons. The first game will start at 7:30 o'clock. In the lineup of the Gersons will be found Toppled star forward of the New Castle High team last year, also several other former New Castle luminaries.

Franklin Trims Union Reserves

Franklin High Team Piles Up Score Of 55 To 4 On Union High Reserve Team

Ben Franklin Junior High basketball team trampled the Union High Monday afternoon and defeated the Union High Reserves 55 to 4. The score at the half favored the Wallace men 26 to 0. Kuhnarski was the only Unionite able to score against Franklin's fine defensive system.

Merando, Mumford, Zinegar and Ross were the high scorers for the Franklin High team, scoring a total of 37 points between them.

Wednesday night the Franklin High team will go to Wampum for a return game with the Wampum High quintet.

Babe Ruth Gets Ready For Trip Down To Florida

Famous Slugger Will Be 40 Years Old Wednesday, Has Just Left Sick Room

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—A bit rusty in the joints, but vocally as lusty as ever, the eminent George Herman Ruth, was to repair from the sick room, in which he has been confined for the past two weeks, today and attend to the business of buying clothes and other private matters preparatory to starting his annual migration to Florida Thursday.

The Babe confessed yesterday that he'd be glad indeed to feel the warm Florida sunshine on his broad shoulders.

He said, "I'll be in good shape when the not so chipper right now."

Incidentally, the Babe celebrates his fortieth birthday tomorrow, but he'd rather not talk about that.

Geneva Is Next For Westminster

Game To Be Played At New Wilmington Next Monday

TITANS TO REST DURING WEEK

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 6.—The Westminster College basketball team gets a well-earned rest until next Monday night when they face the great Geneva College five on the home floor.

Playing Duane's great outfit Saturday night, and then coming back to play Bethany Monday night, was a rather stiff assignment. Coach John Lawther told the men not to report for drills Tuesday night, but the Titans will spend the rest of this week pointing for the Geneva game.

Coach Ken Loeffler of Geneva has one of his best teams, and will be out to repeat last year's Tri-State Conference championship play. Geneva is the only team that has been able to defeat Westminster twice in a season in the last six seasons, turning the trick last year.

Both teams are tied for the Tri-State Conference lead, and a victory now will go a long way toward deciding the final standings in the league. Geneva plays Grove City Friday night in a Conference game at Grove City, so will have Saturday and Sunday to rest for the Titan contest.

Three Church League Games

Three Games Will Be Played Tonight On The Y. M. C. A. Floor

St. Elias will play First Baptists in a B game, Temple Israel and First M. E. will oppose each other in an A tilt and Epworth M. E. and Wesley M. E. clash in another A game in the Church League at the Y tonight. All are Church League teams. The last two games should be especially inviting to the fans as they are closely matched.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Twenty thousand people turned out last night at Miami to see Maxie Rosenbloom retain his light-heavyweight championship against Joe Knight, challenger.

Glenn Cunningham, Kansas U. flier, broke the half mile record for the One Hundred and Thirtieth Infantry army track, New York, when he stepped off the five laps on the flat boards in 1:57.

Southampton beat Swansea 1 to 0 and Grimsby Town won from Port Vale by the same score in the English Soccer league games yesterday. In a rugby game, Montypool won from Plymouth Albion 17 to 3.

The Williams of McKeesport beat the Wheeling McGraws 35-26 at Wheeling last night. Silander, Rice and Newton, former Westminster stars, played with the Williams.

BUTLER ROAD GIRLS WIN

Butler road girls basketball team won from the Castlewood girls sextet in a game played recently at the Shenango High floor. The score was 25 to 17. The stars of the game were Vinson, Cotton, Long and M ore.

Scrub small potatoes and cook until tender. Then put them through the ricer, and you will find that the skins will stay in the ricer and the pulp will pass through.

New Wilmington At Union Tonight

Important County League Game Scheduled For Union Hi Floor

(International News Service)

Union High School basketball team will have their hands full tonight with the fast New Wilmington High school basketball team at the Union High gym, is the indication. The New Wilmington team is the only county league quintet to meet the Unionites this year. The boys will meet after evening practice on their own hardwood floor. The girls of the two schools will play the preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock.

If Union can win tonight they will have a mighty fine chance of taking the Lawrence County High school championship, providing of course that they defeat Bessemer at Bessemer, which will be one of their toughest tilts.

Union Favored

Coach Dave Boyd has the Union team at the peak of form at the present time. With Boron and Monico playing fine basketball at the forwards, and with Schaa's big strength at center, Boyd is well fortified. The two guards Morrison and White can not be improved. They are perhaps the classiest pair of guards in the county. Boyd also has a flock of good looking reserves available, something that every good basketball team must have.

The New Wilmington High team is rather well crippled with the loss of McClure, Minner and McMains for the second half light. Two of these boys have gone to Arizona. Coach Eagleson will present a strong lineup however, with Eagleson, Axe, Borowitz, Ferris and Clark, but Union with a veteran combination should take the measure of the College Towners. Union has won eight straight and the wearers of the Blue and White jerseys will be out to make it nine straight tonight.

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 6.—Faculty women and Westminster College coeds will tangle on the basketball court at Westminster College Thursday evening, thereby giving the women students an opportunity of "getting back at" faculty members for any hard examinations handed out at the end of the first semester.

The contest, sponsored by the W. A. A., will pit the best players from the Women's Athletics Association against the select players of the faculty women. Miss Ada Peabody, professor of public school music, will ump center for the faculty women.

Miss Mildred Altman, librarian will be side center. Miss Mona Sovash, an instructor in the modern language department and Miss Margaret Reed, an instructor in the economics department will be the guards. At forward the faculty women will have Miss Maxwell, college nurse, and Miss Nandeen Love, director of women's athletics.

Jack Hulme, gymnasium director, will be the referee for the game. Dean Mary E. Turner will be official timekeeper, and Miss Elizabeth Stewart, head of the modern language department will be official scorer. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 6.—Westminster's fighting Titans went ahead of Geneva today in percentage points in the Tri-State Conference basketball scramble by defeating the Bethany College team at New Wilmington last night 47 to 28, in a lopsided engagement. Wesley Bennett continued his sensational league playing by getting 18 points.

The Titans did not show the strain of a tough battle at Sharon Saturday against the Dukes as was expected they would, but stepped out and ran up a big lead on the first half of the game. They trailed nicely in the last half, with every member of the team except Wilhelm having a hand in the scoring.

Titans Enjoy Lead

At the end of the first half the Lawthermen led 23 to 12. Bethany could not fathom that defense, used by the United Presbyterians, with any degree of effectiveness. Funk and George led the Bethany team with 21 points between them.

Outside of Bennett the scoring of Captain Billy Douglas and Willets featured, this pair getting 20 of the Westminster points. Leyshock and Hunneke also played good basketball.

FRUIT GROWERS FEAR MILD WINTER WEATHER

(International News Service)

NAMPA, Idaho, Feb. 6.—An unusually mild winter is worrying fruit growers in the Clarkston valley. They fear that fruit buds which are developing in some orchards may suffer loss should sub-freezing temperatures come later in the season. Buds had advanced to such a stage at mid-January that they were beginning to burst and show green.

If mild temperatures prevail many early fruit trees and shrubbery will be in bloom in a few weeks at a time when sub-zero weather is generally experienced in this district.

It might be a good idea, also, to do a little sensible planning for the next peace.

Westminster Goes Ahead Of Geneva In Tri-State Race With Fourth Victory

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 6.—Westminster's fighting Titans went ahead of Geneva today in percentage points in the Tri-State Conference basketball scramble by defeating the Bethany College team at New Wilmington last night 47 to 28, in a lopsided engagement. Wesley Bennett continued his sensational league playing by getting 18 points.

The Titans did not show the strain of a tough battle at Sharon Saturday against the Dukes as was expected they would, but stepped out and ran up a big lead on the first half of the game. They trailed nicely in the last half, with every member of the team except Wilhelm having a hand in the scoring.

Titans Enjoy Lead

At the end of the first half the Lawthermen led 23 to 12. Bethany could not fathom that defense, used by the United Presbyterians, with any degree of effectiveness. Funk and George led the Bethany team with 21 points between them.

Outside of Bennett the scoring of Captain Billy Douglas and Willets featured, this pair getting 20 of the Westminster points. Leyshock and Hunneke also played good basketball.

Foremen Hear Of New Bond Issue

G. H. Morrison and Borough Manager Monroe Present Facts And Figures

Interesting Conference On "Hidden Delays" Precede Feature Event

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 6.—An important meeting held by the Foremen's Club took place last night at the Shelby Club House and a large turnout participated in an unusually interesting conference which was divided into two sessions.

In the first T. R. Snedden read a paper on "Hidden Delays That Affect Production." This included an explanation of hidden delays and denials: are hidden delays and denials? Why? Measuring tools of workmen and management; what as capacity factor of workmen and machines? How can high capacity factor be obtained? At the close of the talk a general discussion was held on the subject.

The second session and important reason for the meeting, was devoted to hearing and discussing the proposed bond issue for the Borough of Ellwood on which the people will vote at a special municipal election to be held one week from today. G. H. Morrison, member of the club and recently retired councilman, was the leader of this conference. He was ably assisted by Borough Manager L. W. Monroe, in presenting facts and figures and an unbiased view of the proposed bond issue.

Morrison explained that on Feb. 13 the people of Ellwood City at a special municipal election will be requested to express their desires on the matter of building a new municipal building and swimming pool, the two out of four projects contemplated under the Public Works Administration, for which funds have already been applied. The two other projects are already underway by councilman authority. They include the building of storm sewers on Sixth street and Lawrence avenue, and another one on Lawrence avenue and Fountain avenue. Thirty percent of the total cost is to be a gift by the Federal Government. For the remainder bonds are to be furnished which the government has agreed to provide at 4 percent interest.

In a concise manner, Mr. Morrison brought out the following facts:

Under the constitution of the state of Pennsylvania the indebtedness of the Borough cannot exceed 7 per cent of the assessed valuation of the property. The statutory tax limitation is placed at 15 mills on the assessed valuation, but may be increased by order of the Court of Quarter Sessions upon necessity being shown the court for any increase. Two of the seven per cent may be incurred by councilman authority and the additional five per cent by the electorate.

The law permits a deduction from any gross indebtedness of the amount in a sinking fund, for the purpose of paying interest as it becomes due and the principal at maturity of the bonds. The amount in the sinking fund is now $38,000. The total legal indebtedness of the borough possible, based on the 1932 assessed valuation is $386,169.

The total of the present and proposed indebtedness is $445,831. The unappropriated or reserve borrowing power of the borough if all the projects are completed will be $66,834 by Councilman authority, $73,504 by electorate plus $38,000, sinking fund or a total of $178,338.

The speaker pointed out that the millage necessary to finance these projects will fluctuate in proportion to any change in assessed valuation. The cost to a person in money will not change regardless of the millage. On this basis the requirements will not exceed 1 1/2 mills. As an illustration property assessed at $2000 at 1 1/2 mills would be $3.00 at $2450 it would be $3.68, at $1500 it would be $2.25.

Now, if in general the assessments were reduced and the first property brought down to $2,000, the levy would be 1.93 mills instead of 1 1/2 mills, etc. This was pointed out to demonstrate the uncertainty of any prediction as to necessary millage.

Borough Credit

Mr. Morrison stressed that it was important that the credit of the borough be considered. From the standpoint of an investor the reserve borrowing power is a factor. Since the borrowing power is based on the assessed valuation any change in such assessment will affect the borrowing power. The figure of $445,831 as being the total of the proposed and present indebtedness, represents 5.32 per cent of $8,373,850, which is the 1932 assessed valuation. If the assessed valuation would drop to $6,369,000 there would be no unappropriated reserve because $445,831 would then equal 7 percent of the assessed valuation which is the limit of bonded indebtedness.

More detailed information on how the debt will be bonded and how this debt will be paid off as related at the meeting will appear in these columns tomorrow.

Government In France Worried Over Situation

Gravest Public Crisis In French History Is Faced By Daladier Government

DEMONSTRATION IS SCHEDULED

Americans And Other Foreigners Warned To Remain Away From Public Square

By WILLIAM PARKER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Feb. 6.—The new Daladier government, facing one of the gravest public crises in French history as it went before the chamber of deputies for its first test vote today, issued a formal proclamation warning the populace it "will know how to maintain order."

While the municipality of Paris was issuing a parallel document disclaiming all responsibility for what might happen during the planned extremist demonstrations today and tonight, the Daladier government firmly declared:

"In every way the government responsible for the preservation of order, will know how to maintain it."

Public Calmness Urged

"The government of appeals to the calm and wisdom of the Parisian population; professional agitators have inspired most unlikely rumors; no movement of military forces or war material has taken place."

The announcement failed to deny, however, that garrisons of troops were held ready to swoop down upon Paris under the famous "Z plan" for the preservation of peace in times of grave strife.

Reflecting the apprehension of the press and public the Paris municipal council took sides against the government in a proclamation of its own, significantly declaring "the elected municipality of Paris declines to accept any responsibility" for what may happen during the mass protest demonstrations.

The press warned Americans and other foreigners to remain away from the Champs Elysees, the place De La Concorde, and other spots chosen for the demonstrations, threatening to be worse than recent street meetings which themselves developed into serious riots.

The threatened public disorders presented the government with its real test.

Serious Situation

With war veterans taking a leading part in planning the protest demonstrations along with royalists and other extreme right and extreme left parties, the government acknowledged the seriousness of the situation in the following excerpt from its proclamation:

"Political groups and associations of former combatants have planned to demonstrate today. The chief of the government himself is an ex-soldier, and he requests his soldier comrades not to link their demands to political troubles."

The press, continuing in its vein of yesterday, printed photographs of machine guns passing through Paris and otherwise predicted serious trouble.

New Castle Armory May Be Erected Soon

In the current issue of "The Pennsylvania Guardsman" there appears an article that seems to presume that the building of the New Castle armory is a matter of the not too distant future. The particular reference to New Castle says that plans and specifications for the armory here are practically complete. It lists other cities that are to be given armories under the terms of Senate Bill 1, passed in the special session of 1933.

The armory here was all but started when the economy wave hit the General Assembly in 1932. In the regular session of 1931 the legislative delegation from Lawrence county had New Castle included in the cities to get new armories. Money was appropriated for the building, the county commissioners purchased the site and the architect began work on the plans.

The letting of contracts was about ready for announcement when the special session of 1932 cut off all appropriations for buildings not started and along with Mansfield and Wellsboro, New Castle's armory had to wait. However, at that time the promise was made in Harrisburg that New Castle would get its armory when money was available.

The article dealing with armories, appearing in the current issue of the "Pennsylvania Guardsman" follows: Senate bill No. 1 was passed by the Legislature at the special session and signed by the governor on Dec. 22. It provides for a loan from the Federal government covering public works projects, to include provision for the erection of such armory buildings as shall be determined by the State Armory board with the approval of the governor. It further provides that not more than two millions of dollars may be used for the construction of armories. Whatever portion of this loan the Federal government shall require to be repaid will be repaid at the rate of not less than one-thirtieth of the principal, with interest, each year.

The State Armory board has completed plans and specifications for armories at Mansfield and Wellsboro to cost forty-five thousand dollars each and for stables for the 103rd cavalry at Philadelphia to cost eighty thousand dollars. Work on these projects may commence at any time when the money becomes available. Plans and specifications are practically complete for an armory at New Castle to cost fifty-five thousand dollars.

It has been estimated that armories and other buildings to be erected at the following stations will cost approximately two and one-half to three millions of dollars. With completion of the present building program, the Pennsylvania National Guard will be in excellent shape from the standpoint of housing.

Ministers Meet In Weekly Session

B. H. Shaddock Gives Talk On "The Mistakes God Did Not Make"; Resolution Passed

The Ministerial association Monday morning was addressed by Dr. B. H. Shaddock of East Liverpool, Ohio, on "The Mistakes God Did Not Make". The speaker showed that if the world had not been created exactly as the Bible says it was or if human life were conditioned here differently than it is men could not live on this earth. He showed that the Bible is accurate and credible in its teachings and that God must be such an intelligent arbiter of human destiny as he is pictured in the Bible to be.

Rabbi Grossfield made a plea in behalf of the oppressed minority groups in Germany, especially the Jews and Christians of Jewish descent. The secretary was authorized to write letters urging the passage to Congress of Senate resolution 154 which deals with the American attitude on this question. It was recommended also that individuals write similar letters.

Dr. Crooks made a plea for some action which would create public sentiment in our city and county against lewd and indecent shows being exhibited. The committee on Law and Order was instructed to make investigations and, if thought advisable, to arrange for a men's mass meeting to be held in the city soon to create sentiment for purity and morality. The letter sent was as follows:

February 5, 1934.
The Honorable David A. Reed
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.
My Dear Sir:

By a resolution passed by the Ministerial association of New Castle, Pennsylvania, representing sixty-four churches and religious bodies, I am authorized to express to you our earnest hope that Senate resolution 154 relating to the policy of the German Reich in regard to discriminations against its minority groups may be passed with as much unanimity and expedition as possible.

Most cordially yours,
C. H. HEATON,
Secretarial Ministerial Association

The will was attacked by John Koehler of Cleveland, a brother Mrs. Mary Walsek of Warren, O., and Mrs. Ella Thayer of New Castle, sisters, who claimed in their petition a will of 1929, which would outdate that probated and penned in 1921.
